

Forestry Graduate Fellowships Annual Progress Report* (FFDF, and other Forestry Fellowships)

Forestry Fellowship award holders are expected to make systematic and consistent progress in their research and academic program. As outlined in the Admission Package, an annual progress report detailing the achievements of the year must be submitted to the Forestry Graduate Program Office.

The thesis Supervisor must review the research progress and, if deemed unsatisfactory, must make appropriate funding recommendations to Associate Dean, Graduate Studies.

Student's Name:	UBC Student #	Program: PhD / Master's
	Signature	Date (dd/mm/yy)

SECTION A – Student's Report

Students will complete the report form in response to the following questions:

1. What progress was made during the previous year toward completing the program requirements (courses, comprehensive examination, proposal, thesis, etc.) and did the progress meet or surpass the objectives set at the beginning of the year?
2. List any conference presentations or publications.
3. What progress was achieved during the previous year with respect to student professional development (e.g. G+PS or TAG workshops)?
4. Any other comments.

* If you are required to submit an annual progress report to G+PS for multi-year fellowships (Tri-council, Vanier, Killam, Four Year Fellowships, Aboriginal Fellowships, and Affiliated Fellowships), that report will replace this Forestry Fellowships annual progress report. The G+PS report form is available at <https://www.grad.ubc.ca/forms/annual-progress-report-fellowship-holders>.
